Mr. Donald Kull
Executive Director
Joint Financial Management
Improvement Program
441 G Street, N. W.
Washington, D. C. 20548

Dear Mr. Kull:

This is in reply to Mr. Arthur W. Sampson's memorandum dated 5 September 1974 requesting nominations for the Financial Management Improvement Awards. After careful consideration, we have decided not to submit a nomination this year. However, we hope to nominate a candidate in the future for this recognition.

Sincerely,

John F. Blake

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
GENERAL SERVICES ADMINISTRATION

WASHINGTON, DC 20405

SEP 5 1974

TO: THE HEADS OF DEPARTMENTS AND AGENCIES, AND PUBLIC
INTEREST GROUPS

Subject: Joint Financial Management Improvement Program--
Financial Management Improvement Award

The annual Financial Management Improvement Award will be presented at a one-day conference planned for January 20, 1975, in Washington, D. C. This is the only award specifically directed to excellence in financial management sponsored by the Federal Government. The award recognizes exceptional accomplishment in the application of effective financial management in Federal, State and local governments. Normally, two such awards are presented annually.

The Principals of the Joint Financial Management Improvement Program--the Secretary of the Treasury, the Chairman of the Civil Service Commission, the Director of the Office of Management and Budget, the Comptroller General, and I--administer the awards program.

Heads of Federal departments and agencies and representatives of State and local governments have the opportunity to nominate one career employee and one noncareer employee or a group of employees whose achievements during fiscal year 1974 represent outstanding contributions to improved government financial management. An employee need not be presently employed by the agency to be nominated, but must have been employed during fiscal year 1974. For purposes of this announcement, a noncareer employee shall be considered as any employee who served in an excepted position irrespective of the origin of appointment or previous status as a career employee.

Criteria and format for nominations are set forth in the enclosed brochure.
